PETITIONER

VRS.

RESPONDENT

PAMELA AMOAH

Parties Present

Emmanuel Opoku Acheampong Present for Applicant

By Court - Judgment

Having read the sworn statement of the Applicant, the Respondent and Miss Alice Agalase. I am satisfied that the following facts are established per their respective Affidavits evidence;

- 1) The fact that the Parties herein contracted a Customary Marriage on the 19th day of April, 2008 which was witnessed by their family members,
- 2) That the Parties dissolved their customary marriage on the 26th day of July, 2013 in the presence of the principal elders of both their families, and
- 3) That fact that the Application has since the 24th day of January 2019 being Married to Carol Annette Douglas under the Ordinance as shown by Exhibit A annexed to the Applicant's Affidavit evidence. (Marriage Certificate).

In the circumstance, the court is satisfied that the Applicant and the Respondent dissolved their Customary Marriage on the 26th day of July, 2013 in the presence of the principal elders of both families including Miss Alice Agalase who has furnished the court with her Affidavit evidence in support of this.

The Court therefore declares the Customary Marriage of Ishmael Robert Allasan and Pamela Amoah dissolved as at 26th day of July 2013.

I accordingly dissolve the said ordinance marriage this 14th day of October 2022.

I make no award as to cost
