

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT '1' BEFORE HER HONOUR ANGELA ATTACHIE
ON FRIDAY THE 21ST DAY OF JULY 2023

SUIT NO. C5/103/2023

EMMANUEL KOJO PREMPEH

PETITIONER

VRS

EUGENIA ABA MOSES

RESPONDENT

Parties present

Henry Kumi for Petitioner

Oliver Susuli for Respondent

Evidence-in-Chief of Petitioner

S.O.B in English

Q: What is your name?

A: Emmanuel Kojo Prempeh.

Q: Where do you live?

A: Oyarifa.

Q: Where do you work?

A: Vodafone Ghana.

Q: You caused your witness statement to be filed on your behalf and you confirm same as your statement.

A: Yes it's my signature and I wish to rely on it as my evidence before the court.

By Court

The witness statement of the petitioner filed on 30th June 2023 is adopted as the evidence in chief of the Petitioner.

End of Evidence-in-Chief of the Petitioner

End of Case of Petitioner

Evidence-in-Chief of the Respondent

S.O.B in English

Q: What is your name?

A: Eugenia Aba Moses.

Q: You filed your witness statement on the 5th of July?

A: Yes. It is my statement and I wish to rely on it as my evidence before the court.

By Court

Witness statement of the respondent filed on 5th July 2023 is hereby adopted as the evidence in chief of the respondent.

End of Evidence-in-Chief of the Respondent

Cross-Examination by Counsel for the Petitioner

End of Case for the Respondent

By Court

The parties have not lived together as husband and wife for the past two (2) years as a result of the constant fights between both parties which caused them to mutually agree for the petitioner to move out of the matrimonial home. Due to the disrespect and trauma both parties especially the petitioner claims to have gone through. He finds it intolerable to continue to live as a husband to the respondent who mocked and abused him due to his joblessness. The court is convinced the marriage between the parties has broken down beyond reconciliation. Same is hereby dissolved. The terms of settlement filed on 2nd June 2023 is hereby adopted as consent judgment of the court as follows;

- a. Custody is granted to Respondent with access to the Petitioner every other weekend and half of every school vacation.

- b. Petitioner shall pay One Thousand Ghana Cedis (GH¢1,000.00) as maintenance for both children.
- c. Petitioner to pay for the educational needs of the two children fully.

H/H ANGELA ATTACHIE
CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE