JUDGMENT:

Plaintiff claims from defendant:

- a. cash the sum of GHC35000 being the current market price of pragya with registration number M 4212 – 22 which plaintiffs gave to defendant to work with and make sales of GHC1200 per month and defendant later told plaintiff that the pragya is missing.
- b. Recovery of sales from May, 2023 to the date of final payment with interest at the current bank rate.
- c. Cost.

Plaintiff case in support of his claim is that he gave his tricycle to defendant work with same so that he makes monthly sales of GHC1200 but defendant failed to make the sales and misplaced the tricycle.

Plaintiff added that after that plaintiff brought his mother and his head of family to his house to plead with him to allow them to only GHC4000.00 to him and he accepted but defendant and his people have refused to pay the money since then.

In his defense defendant admitted that he misplaced the tricycle and pleaded with plaintiff to give him sometime to pay the money they agreed on.

From the above therefore the court hereby enters consent judgment for the parties.

No orders as to cost.
