DEPARTMENT OF FORESTRY—MINISTRY OF LANDS AND MINERAL RESOURCES
VACANCIES FOR LEARNER TECHNICAL OFFICERS (FORESTRY)

Applications are invited from suitably qualified persons to undergo a three-year course of training beginning in July, 1973. Approximately one year of the course will be undertaken in the field and two years at the Forestry Training School, Sunyani.

2. Qualifications:

- (a) Candidates must have completed a full course of Secondary School Education, and possess the West African School Certificate or the General Certificate of Education with passes in English and Mathematics, and one or more of the following subjects:—General Science, Biology, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry or Physics.
- (b) Candidates for the June, 1973 West African School Certificate Examination may apply on producing satisfactory evidence that they have entered for the examination in the required subjects.
- (c) Age limits.—16-25 years.

3. Selected candidates for training must have a certificate of fitness from a Government Medical Officer before being accepted for training.

4. Allowances.—£510 per annum for those qualified under (a) above. Those qualified under (b) above will be paid at the rate of £480 per annum; they will, however, on producing proof of having obtained the qualifications required under (a) above, be paid at the rate of £510 per annum retrospectively from the date of assumption of duty or the date of satisfying the examiners for a West African School Certificate/G.C.E. (O' Level) Certificate whichever is the later. Both these rates are increased by £30 at the end of the first and second years of training.

5. Furnished accommodation and services are provided in the School at a low charge. Students are also required to pay for the cost of messing.

6. Students will be bonded for $\text{C}200$ to complete the Course and to serve for five years in any subsequent appointment in the Forestry Department.

7. Students who successfully complete the Course will be eligible for appointment as Technical Officers (Forestry) on the Salary Scale:

- $\text{C}792 \times \text{C}36\text{--}\text{C}900$;
- $\text{C}1,008 \times \text{C}36\text{--}\text{C}1,188$;
- $\text{C}1,236 \times \text{C}48\text{--}\text{C}1,428$.

8. Future Prospects.—Technical Officers (Forestry) have excellent prospects of promotion to the following posts for officers with ability and merit:

SENIOR TECHNICAL OFFICER (FORESTRY)

- $\text{C}1,488 \times \text{C}60\text{--}\text{C}1,740$;
- $\text{C}1,812 \times \text{C}72\text{--}\text{C}2,124$.

PRINCIPAL TECHNICAL OFFICER (FORESTRY)

- $\text{C}2,208 \times \text{C}84\text{--}\text{C}2,580$;
- $\text{C}2,676 \times \text{C}108\text{--}\text{C}3,108$.

CHIEF TECHNICAL OFFICER (FORESTRY)

- $\text{C}3,228 \times \text{C}120\text{--}\text{C}3,720$.

9. Suitable applicants who will be selected after an examination and interview will spend three to six months in the field studying practical forestry at the satisfactory conclusion of which they will qualify for entry into the Forestry Training School. Copies of the Forestry School Prospectus which explain fully the scope and conditions of training, and contain official application forms, can be obtained on request from the Principal, Forestry Training School, Post Office Box 214, Sunyani, or from Forestry Offices in Kumasi, Tamale, Koforidua, and Takoradi.

Completed application forms must reach the Principal by the 15th March, 1973.
