MINISTRY OF ECONOMIC PLANNING

VACANCIES FOR ASSISTANT ECONOMIC OFFICERS AND ECONOMIC OFFICERS

Applications are invited from suitably qualified Ghanaians for appointment as Assistant Economic Officers or Economic Officers in the Ministry of Economic Planning.

(i) ASSISTANT ECONOMIC OFFICERS

Duties.—Assistant Economic Officers have responsibilities in all matters relating to the preparation of Ghana's Development Plans and in the formulation and examination of particular projects in connection therewith. They will be required to assemble and analyse any data or other information needed for the formulation and analysis of Development Plans and their constituent projects. They may be assigned to service with the Planning Commission or its committees or any other body set up from time to time in connection with the planning process. These assignments may cover any sector of the economy and Assistant Economic Officers may be expected, and will be given the opportunity, to develop a high degree of versatility. While the analysis of project proposals will require the ability to apply the analytical tools of economics and a firm grasp of detail, Assistant Economic Officers will frequently have to formulate proposals themselves and must be prepared to show the requisite degree of originality for this purpose. They assist in the year-by-year programme of Development Plans through the examination of capital expenditure estimates of Ministries and Departments and for operation budgets of State productive enterprises. The work will also involve giving advice from time to time on the foreign and domestic economic policies of Ghana at the request of Government or of individual Departments and Ministries.

Qualifications.—Candidates must possess a First or Second Class Honours degree in Economics or Sociology or other Social Sciences with Economics as a major.

Salary.—Range 52, 55 i.e. ₵2,472–₵2,808; ₵2,724–₵3,096.
