LIMITED COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR ENTRY TO THE GRADES OF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER GRADE IV AND BRANCH A.5 FOREIGN SERVICE OFFICER—SEPTEMBER, 1976

The Limited Competitive Examination for entry into the above-mentioned grades in the Civil Service will be held on the 15th, 16th and 17th September, 1976.

2. Qualifications:

- (a) To be eligible to enter the examination for appointment as Administrative Officer Grade IV, Candidates must:—
- (i) be confirmed officers serving in the grade of Executive Officer and above or hold any other departmental post declared by the Acting Senior Principal Secretary (Establishments) to be analogous to these grades;
 - (ii) have completed five years' service in the Executive Class or in the departmental grade by 15th September, 1976.
 - (iii) have attained their 25th birthday;
 - (iv) have satisfactory record of service and
 - (v) have not entered this competition on five previous occasions.
- (b) For appointment as Branch A.5 Foreign Service Officer, Candidates must:—
- (i) be confirmed Branch B.6 or above Foreign Service Officers serving in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
 - (ii) have completed five years' service in the Branch "B" Class by 15th September, 1976;
 - (iii) have attained their 25th birthday;
 - (iv) have satisfactory record of service and
 - (v) have not entered this competition on five previous occasions.

3. Nature of competition.—The competition will consist of a written examination to be conducted by the West African Examinations Council on behalf of the Public Services Commission and may be followed by an interview. The syllabus for the examination is as follows:—

English Paper I and II:

(100 marks each: for all Candidates): These will include essay writing; precis and other questions designed to test the understanding and use of the language.

General Paper I:

(100 marks: for all Candidates): Will be on matters of general interest and importance at the present day, social, cultural, economic, political and scientific. A liberal choice of questions will be given and candidates will be expected to show a good knowledge of both African and World Affairs and their interaction.

General Paper II:

(100 marks: for all Candidates): Will consist of questions designed to test reasoning power, capacity to perceive implications and ability to distinguish between the important and the less important. One or more questions may involve calculations or the interpretation of graphs and statistics. A choice of questions will be given.

General Paper III:

(100 marks: for Candidates wishing to join the Administration Class): Will consist of practical administrative problems including application of the Civil Service Rules and Regulations. Candidates taking this particular Paper will be required to make references in the General Orders, Financial Orders, Stores Regulations, Civil Service Act and Interim Regulations, 1960. They will therefore be permitted to bring along with them to the examination hall these books for reference.

General Paper III:

(100 marks: for Branch "B" Foreign Service Officer wishing to join Branch "A" Foreign Service): Will consist of general knowledge questions on World Affairs and International relations with particular reference to Africa and International Affairs.

4. Time and Place of Examination.—The examination will be held on the 15th, 16th and 17th September, 1976. The time-table for the examination will be furnished in due course. Depending on whether or not there are sufficient candidates in each case to justify the special arrangements required, the examination centres will be located in:—

Accra
Cape Coast
Takoradi
Sunyani
Kumasi
Tamale
Ho

Candidates will be required to sit for the examination at the centres nearest to their places of work or their homes, if on leave. If there are very few candidates not justifying the setting up of centres in one or more of these towns, arrangements will be made for the candidates affected to sit at other centres. Foreign Service Officers on postings abroad will take their examinations overseas at centres to be arranged by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in conjunction with the West African Examinations Council.

5. Fees.—Candidates will be required to pay an examination fee of ₵29.00 (Twenty-nine Cedis). The fee may be paid at any District Treasury or Post Office with Savings Bank facilities on production of a certificate from one's Head of Department to the effect that the applicant is eligible to enter the competition. On payment of the fee, candidates will be issued receipts which must be produced in the Examination Hall. Candidates who are unable to produce both their admission notices and a receipt for the fee in the examination hall will not be admitted to take the examination.

6. Method of Application:

- (i) Candidates who are qualified in terms of paragraph 2 above and who wish to take the examination should obtain application forms (P.S.C. Form 31) from their Heads of Departments who may purchase supplies of them from the General Manager, Ghana Publishing Corporation (Printing Division), P.O. Box 124, Accra. These forms must be completed in candidate's own handwriting and should be returned through the Head of Department to reach the Secretary, Public Services Commission, Accra, not later than the 24th June, 1976.
- (ii) Candidates are requested to paste a copy of their recent photograph (passport size) in the space between the date and the applicant's signature at paragraph 12 of the application form.
- (iii) It is the responsibility of Heads of Departments to ensure that eligible applicants have paid the prescribed examination fees and also to make endorsements on the application forms to that effect when submitting them to the Public Services Commission. Application forms without the endorsement of the payment of the examination fees will not be accepted.
- (iv) Change of Centre.—Should it be necessary by reason of posting or incidence of leave or any other reason for the centre at which it was proposed that a candidate should sit the examination to be changed, it is the responsibility of the officer concerned to inform his Head of Department who, if he is satisfied that the proposed change of centre is in order, will report to the Secretary, Public Services Commission, Accra as soon as possible and in any case not later than the 30th June, 1976. No change of examination centre can be effected after this date and no candidate will be admitted to the examination except at the centre for which his or her admission notice has been issued.

QUALIFYING ENGLISH EXAMINATION FOR ADVANCEMENT IN THE SECRETARIAL CLASS OF THE CIVIL SERVICE: SEPTEMBER, 1976

One of the requirements for advancement beyond the grade of Stenographer Grade II in the Secretarial Class of the Civil Service is that an officer shall:

- either (a) have obtained a pass with credit in the English Language paper of the West African School Certificate Examination or a pass at the Ordinary Level in the English Language paper of the General Certificate of Education Examination; or
- (b) have passed a Qualifying examination in English Language prescribed by the Public Services Commission.

2. The next examination in English Language under (b) above will be held on Saturday, 11th September, 1976 at the following centres:—

Centre				Examination Hall
Accra	Public Services Commission Examination Hall on the 28th February Road, Accra.
Koforidua	Ghana Secondary School, Koforidua.
Cape Coast	Mfantipim Secondary School, Cape Coast.
Takoradi	Workers' College, Takoradi.
Sunyani	Sunyani Secondary School, Sunyani.
Ho	Ho Technical Institute.
Kumasi	West African Examinations Council Hall, Unicorn House, near Kejetia, Kumasi.
Tamale	Tamale Secondary School, Tamale.

Candidates will be required to sit for the examination at any of the above centres nearest to their places of work or home, if on leave. If there are very few candidates not justifying the setting up of centres in one or more of the above-named towns, arrangements will be made for the candidates concerned to sit at other centres.

3. Applications to sit for the examination are invited from serving officers holding substantive appointments in established grades in the Public Service.

4. Application forms for the examination (P.S.C. Form 28) should be obtained from an applicant's Head of Department who may purchase supplies of them from the General Manager, Ghana Publishing Corporation (Printing Division), Accra. Completed application forms, however, must reach the Head of one's Department by 4th June, 1976 who is responsible for transmitting them to the Secretary, Public Services Commission, Accra, not later than 18th June, 1976. Should a candidate be transferred from one station to another, it is his responsibility to inform the Secretary, Public Services Commission, Accra, through his Head of Department of the change in his address as soon as possible and in any case not later than 30th June, 1976. No change of centre can be effected after this date and no candidate will be admitted to the examination except at the centre for which his admission letter is issued.

5. Examination Fees.—All candidates for the examination will be required to pay an examination fee of ₵5.00 each. This fee may be paid at any District Treasury or Post Office with Savings Bank facilities on production of a certificate from one's Head of Department to the effect that the applicant is eligible to enter the examination. Candidates will be given receipts for the fee which must be produced at the Examination Hall. Candidates who are unable to produce both their admission letters and the receipt for the fee for inspection in the examination hall will not be allowed to take the examination. Heads of Departments should ensure that eligible applicants have paid the prescribed examination fee; they are also required to make endorsement to that effect on the face of the completed application forms before transmitting them to the Secretary, Public Services Commission. Application forms without such endorsement will not be accepted.

6. Identification Photographs.—Candidates are requested to paste a copy of their recent photograph (passport size) in the space between the date and the applicant's signature below paragraph 8 of the application form. Candidates registered for the examination will be required to produce on demand by the invigilators in the Examination Hall, a recent photograph (passport size) of themselves the reverse side of which must have been duly certified by their Heads of Departments to the effect that the picture is the true and faithful likeness of the candidate. Candidates who are unable to produce their photographs for inspection will not be allowed to take the examination.
